

Chinese Speech and Performance Contest

普渡大学汉语口语暨中华才艺大奖赛

November 12, 2005, 2-5pm SC 239

Sponsored by

Purdue University China Center
Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures (FLL)
Purdue University Chinese Student and Scholar Association (PUCSSA)

The Purdue University China Center and the Chinese Language Program of FLL and PUCSSA are proud to sponsor the second annual Chinese Speech and Performance Contest in Fall 2005. Students from all Chinese language classes and any other non-native speakers of Chinese who have Chinese language background are encouraged to participate in this contest.

Registration:

All students in the CHNS Language Program can register with their individual instructors. Others can register with Professor Wei Hong by email hongwei@purdue.edu. Please use the attached registration form. It is also available on Chinese Program website at <http://www.sla.purdue.edu/fl/Chinese/>. Registration begins now and ends on 10/29.

Topics:

Speeches, skits, Xiangsheng (comic dialogues), Xiaoping (mini comedies), poems or recitations in Chinese on any topic of Chinese language and culture are welcome. Participants can also perform Chinese songs, dances, martial arts or instruments. Each performance should be no longer than 5 minutes.

Credits and Awards:

Contestants in the CHNS Language Program will receive 3 extra points added to their semester grade. Attendees will receive one class attendance. The winners will receive certificates and prizes.

Evaluations:

All contestants will be judged and voted by the evaluation committee.

Registration Form for Chinese Speech/Performance Contest

Name: _____ Name (in Chinese): _____

Chinese Course/Proficiency Level: _____

Nationality: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Language Spoken at Home: _____

Foreign Language(s) Spoken (besides English): _____

Speech Topic (in Chinese): _____

Performance: _____

(Note: Please identify who you are performing with. If singing, do you need help in finding the music for you? If yes, please indicate the song in Chinese)

Name of Your Chinese Language Teacher: _____

Please give or email this form to your teacher or to Professor Wei Hong at hongwei@purdue.edu by Oct. 29, 2005. Thanks! We look forward to seeing you on Nov. 12!