

Spring 2010
AAS 27100

MWF 9:30 - 10:20

For more course information contact the
African American Studies & Research Center
100 University, Beering Hall Room 6182
Phone: 765-494-5680
Email: aasrc@purdue.edu
www.purdue.edu/african-american

INTRODUCTION TO AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES

I n s t r u c t o r : Dr. Niambi Carter

The course will chronicle and explore African American culture and experience by looking at such topics as: African American Studies as a Discipline, Historical Movements, Cultural Practices, the African Diaspora, and Contemporary Challenges/Issues relative to the African American experience. Based on the topics covered, students will be challenged to critically assess dimensions of African American experience to uncover ways in which persons of African descent have reacted to a variety of challenges. Finally, this course is designed to encourage and stimulate critical thinking regarding the African American experience.