

Nationalism, Citizenship, Immigration and American Studies
Spring 2007 American Studies Lecture Series & Colloquia

“Freedom’s Name is Mighty Sweet;
Black and White are Gonna Meet:
Blacks and Whites on the Left in the Battle for Freedom, 1917 to WWII”

Presented By
Dr. Mark Solomon
Professor Emeritus of History
Simmons College

Professor Solomon is a frequent speaker at home and abroad, lecturing in Europe, Asia, and the Caribbean. He has written scores of articles on African-American history, race and racism, U.S. foreign policy, globalization, and war and peace issues. Dr. Solomon is a past member of the presidential committee of the World Peace Council and a national co-chair of the Committees of Correspondence for Democracy and Socialism (CCDS).

He has also authored five books, most recently The Cry was Unity: Communists and African Americans, 1917-1936.

Friday, March 30, 2007
2:00 ~ 4:00 pm.
Beering Hall, Room 2275

Sponsored By:
American Studies
African-American Studies
Committee on Peace Studies