

Final Paper Assignment
ENGL 360K: Gender and Literature
Professor Blackmon

For this assignment you will do a literary analysis, the text(s) for this paper are your choice (but they must be given final approval by the professor). You may choose texts that have been used in class but, be sure to do a detailed analysis that is not a simple regurgitation of what was said in class. What you write must be new scholarship. Do not assume that by choosing a text that we have already read will be easier. Because of the fact that you must discuss fresh ideas some of you may consider it more difficult.

You are required to write no fewer than 5 and no more than 7 typed double-spaced pages (1250-1750 words) not including the works cited page. You may find the writing about literature resources on the course web site useful. You will need to use at least 3 outside/critical/scholarly sources as support in addition to your primary sources for this assignment. In order to be considered for a grade, this assignment is to be complete, of the minimum word count, and must conform to MLA documentation and format (word-processed, 12 point legible font, double-spacing, with one inch margins). Please submit an electronic copy of the paper (via email, CD-R, or diskette) on the date that the paper is due.

Papers are Due Monday, June 07, 2004. NO EXCEPTIONS!!
