

The German Section, the Departments of Foreign Languages & Literatures, the Department of English, the IDIS Film & Video Studies Program, the IDIS Comparative Literature Program, and the IDIS Medieval and Renaissance Studies Program (MARS) at Purdue University co-sponsor & present

Steven Ritz-Barr

Film Producer and Puppet Artist from Los Angeles & producer of recent Film titled

"Faust"

Monday Feb 23, 2009
at Purdue University

1:30 - 2:20 p.m.
in Stanley Coulter G40

and

4:00-4:50pm
in Stanley Coulter 102

Each of the 2 sessions will consist of a 30 minute film screening, then a brief lecture with demonstration of puppet art, followed by a questions-and-answers period with the film producer. You are invited. Both events are free and open to the public and in the English language complimentary refreshments served after both events

<<http://www.cla.purdue.edu/complit/>>
http://india.fl.purdue.edu/german_fl/events/events.html

For more information, contact Professor Beate Allert allert@purdue.edu,