

Diversity and Inclusion Symposium

Monday, April 13, 2015 | Dauch Alumni Center

Dr. Jo Reger

Oakland University in Michigan
Sexuality, Race, and Generations in Contemporary Feminism

9:30 AM

Dr. Juliet Hooker

The University of Texas at Austin
Race and the Politics of Solidarity

10:15 AM

Dr. Dara Strolovitch

Princeton University
Social Movements and the Shifting Boundaries of Intersectional Marginalization

11:15 AM

Dr. David S. Meyer

University of California, Irvine
Social Movements in America: The Challenge of Constructing and Deploying Diversity

1:00 PM

Dr. Karen Beckwith

Case Western Reserve University
The Labor Movement as Social Movement

2:00 PM

Dr. Erica Townsend-Bell

Oklahoma State University
Intersectionality, Power, and Social Movements

3:00 PM

To RSVP for the limited seating event, please email allisonroberts@purdue.edu

Sponsored by: The Diversity & Inclusion Project, the Center for Research on Diversity and Inclusion, the Susan Bulkeley Butler Center for Leadership Excellence, the Political Science Department, the LGBTQ Center, the Division of Diversity and Inclusion, the African American Studies and Research Center, American Studies, the Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies Program, and the Brian Lamb School of Communication

PURDUE
LIBERAL ARTS