FRENCH LANGUAGE EXAMINER FOR THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Note to student's major professor:

In furnishing the material for the reading examination please choose a text which is related to the student's research goals. This material should be a book, an issue of a periodical or xeroxed articles, from which the lines (not necessarily one continuous passage) will constitute the examination or part of it.

This material should reach the office of the French Language Examiner at least five days prior to the examination, together with the following completed form.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 496-1679, or leave a message with the departmental secretary at 494-3828.
