

Guidelines and Invitation to Submit Manuscripts

PURDUE STUDIES IN ROMANCE LITERATURES welcomes completed manuscripts on topics of literary, theoretical, or philological importance that make a significant contribution to scholarship in French, Italian, Luso-Brazilian, Spanish, and Spanish American literatures.

Preliminary inquiry

Authors interested in publishing with PSRL should first send a paper proposal describing their work. Electronic proposals are discouraged. For details, see our Guidelines for Proposals. The editors will examine the materials and, if interested, request the manuscript.

Preparation of the manuscript

Manuscripts should be approximately 75,000–90,000 words (250–300 pages) in length. The entire manuscript (text, quotes, notes, and bibliography) must be double spaced. The text may be in English, French, or Spanish. If you include images, there should be no more than six. Quotations should be in the original language. Translations should be provided for quotations in any languages other than French and Spanish. Please inquire for details. Dissertations must be rigorously revised before submission to meet the definition of a book. The manuscript must conform to the latest edition of the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (New York: MLA), following the parenthetical style of documentation. Please provide an anonymous manuscript, including two title pages, one with the author's name, the other without. The author's name must not appear in the page headings or be identifiable from the text. However, the manuscript will be sent out as it is received.

Materials required for submission

Authors are required to submit (1) two clean paper copies of the manuscript, unbound and printed on one side only; (2) a signed statement that PSRL is and will remain the sole reviewing agency while it is considering the work for publication; and (3) a check made out to "Purdue University" for postage to return one copy of the manuscript.

Additional requirements

If a manuscript is accepted for publication, the author will be asked for a subvention of $1500 to help defray some of the production expenses. At that time we also require an electronic copy of the manuscript. Send your files in MS Word for the Mac format. Files in PC format are also acceptable. Word Perfect files should be saved in MS Word format.
