
HIST 351:

The Second World War

Dr. Randy Roberts

Fall 2020 | Tuesday and Thursday | 4:30-5:45pm | LILY 1105

HIST 351 will cover the military, diplomatic, political, social, and cultural history of World War II. It will focus on the causes of the war, the battles that decided the war, the leaders (civilian and military) who made the key decisions, and how the war changed society. An additional feature will be how the war is remembered in novels and films. Hollywood features and documentaries will play a crucial part in the course. In short, the course will cover the history of the war from the rise of Adolf Hitler to “Saving Private Ryan.”
