

Shakespeare's Pericles: Authorship, the Just Gods, and Experimental Drama

A lecture by Dr. Dharani dhar Sahu

From Berhampur University, Berhampur, Orissa, India

Dr. Sahu is the author of Cats on a Hot Tin Roof, a Study of Alienated Characters in the Plays of Tennessee Williams (1990), The House of Serpents (a novel, 1996), Three Shaktas of Bhartrihari (verse translation from Sanskrit, 2003), Hereos and Monsters: Ten Tales in Verse (9 Greek tales, One Indian tale, 2007), and The Decameron on a Goan Beach: Twelve Feel Good Stories (2008)

Tuesday, November 10, 2009

4:30 p.m.

Anniversary Drawing Room, Purdue
Memorial Union

Discussion to follow with light refreshments served.

*This lecture is sponsored by the Comparative Literature Program.
For information, please contact Dorothy Deering at ddeering@purdue.edu*