

ILLUMINATIONS

PURDUE UNIVERSITY

Seventh Annual Series / 2006-2007

TUESDAYS, 4:30 - 5:45 pm

MATTHEWS 111 (Corner of State and University)*

Illuminations: Occasional interdisciplinary fora bringing together faculty and students across their primary interests and academic specialties. The event is sponsored by the Philosophy & Literature Graduate Program with other collaborating programs at Purdue University. All are welcome!

FALL 2006

October 31

Ann Astell

When Pardon is Impossible: Two Talmudic Tales, Chaucer's 'Pardoner's Tale,' and Levinas

November 14

Sandor Goodhart

Levinas and the Political: Reading Levinas Reading Talmud

SPRING 2007

February 6

Geri Friedman

The Aesthetics of Masculinization: Transgender Identity Constructing the Sublime

March 6

TBA

*Note new venue.