

“One Spirit, Many Gifts”
Sr. Jannette Marie Pruitt, OSF
Coordinator for Black Catholic Ministry
Archdiocese of Indianapolis

Wednesday, February 24, 2016 at 7pm
Newman Hall, St. Thomas Aquinas, the Catholic Center at Purdue

Sister Jannette Pruitt, OSF, is Coordinator of Black Catholic Ministry for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, helping organize programs for black Catholics. She also sits on the board of the National Black Sisters' Conference and was twice nominated for the Harriet Tubman award, honoring a sister who is "Moses of Her People." Her path to becoming a nun was recently featured in the Wall Street Journal.

This lecture is sponsored by the Aquinas Educational Foundation, the Religious Studies Program at Purdue, and St. Thomas Aquinas, the Catholic Center at Purdue.