

Religious Studies

Religion and Science 2009-10, a Darwin "Mini-series"

Reading & Bagel Circles

1:30-2:20 p.m., Weds., Oct. 21, Nov. 4, Nov. 18; BRNG 7150

Free bagels & coffee enjoyed over a free discussion of Kenneth Miller's Finding Darwin's God. Discussion leader Professor Tom Ryba (PU/ND). Books available at Borders Bookstore, Wabash Landing or request free copy by emailing <durano@purdue.edu> by October 14, 2009.

Road Trip to Notre Dame

8:00 p.m., Sun., Nov. 1 Public Lecture; McKenna Hall, Notre Dame U

Kenneth Miller (Brown U) on "Darwin, God, and Design-Evolution and the Battle for America's Soul." Free transportation to and from Notre Dame in time for "on-your-own" dinner, public lecture, and free reception.

- To reserve your spot on the bus, contact Tom Ryba at <ryba@purdue.edu>

- For more information on the ND "Darwin in the 21st Century," see <http://www.nd.edu/~reilly/documents/conference_schedule.pdf>

PU-RS and PSRG Public Lecture

February 2010, date, time, location TBA

Matthew Ashley (ND-Theology) to discuss "Darwin's Bi-centennial in Retrospect"

Co-sponsored by Purdue Religious Studies <<http://www.cla.purdue.edu/religious-studies/>> and the Purdue Science and Religion Group.