

Women in Leadership Institute

Saturday, March 7, 2015

Purdue University, Stewart Center

WLI aims to inspire those who attend to contribute to a global society in which women are equal, active leaders and citizens. By providing participants with the knowledge, skills and ability to affect change, we hope to create a better campus, a better community, a better world.

A world in which PURDUE WOMEN LEAD.

2 Tracks – 1 Amazing Opportunity

Elect Her Track

Interested in running for office? Interested in gaining networking and communication skills? Looking for ideas on self-advocacy in the workplace? Apply for the Elect Her track!

Training exercises, speakers, panel

Apply at purdue.edu/electher
by Wednesday February 11

Elect Her track is FREE to accepted students

Funded by the American Association of University Women (AAUW) and Running Start

General Track

Interested in developing your leadership capacity? Interested in learning more about issues that are affecting women and are in need of leadership? Sign up for the General track!

Speakers, intensive workshops, informative presentations

Register at purdue.edu/binvolved
(registration open until filled)

Registration costs $25
Full and partial scholarships available!

Email electher@purdue.edu
for information on scholarships.

Open to all students interested in running for office and/or expanding their leadership and promoting women in office and leadership.

For more information, visit purdue.edu/electher or email electher@purdue.edu.

Sponsored By:

The Butler Center | Civic Engagement and Leadership Development | LGBTQ Center
Purdue AAUW Student Organization | Student Activities and Organizations