

Public Square Forum, Fall 2010

Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Violence,
the College of Liberal Arts

Lecture, Film, and Discussion:

Patrick Gerard Henry

“Modes of Resistance to Violence:
The Rescue of Jews in France
During the Holocaust”

October 21, 3:00 p.m.

Black Cultural Center, 1100 Third St., W. L.

Refreshments served

Patrick Gerard Henry,
Cushing Eells Professor Emeritus of Philosophy and Literature at Whitman College.

- Who were the rescuers of Jews during the Holocaust?
- Why do we know so little about them?
- What motivated them?
- What can we learn from studying them?

Professor Henry's talk will be preceded by a showing of the short film by Pierre Sauvage,
Weapons of the Spirit.

<http://www.cla.purdue.edu/academic/idis/violence-center/>

experience
LIBERAL ARTS

voices • communities • cultures

Professor Henry's book, We Only Know Men is published by Catholic University of America Press.

PURDUE
UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Students, faculty, staff, and community members are encouraged to attend.
Purdue University is an equal opportunity institution.

DISTINGUISH yourself