

1989–2009:
20 Years After the Fall
A Colloquium

November 9th, 2009
Purdue University

Part I: 3pm-6pm in Lawson 1142

Welcome Doug Hurt, Professor and Chair, Department of History, Purdue University
Introduction Rebekah Klein-Pejšová, Jewish Studies Assistant Professor of History, Purdue University
 ["gen 1989", 1989 vs. 1991, 11/9 wall & kristallnacht – intro content]

• Padraic Kenney, Professor of History and Head of Polish Studies, Indiana University at Bloomington
["title of presentation"]

-Respondent: Charles Ingrao, Professor of History, Purdue University
Open Discussion

• Julia Gray, Assistant Professor of Political Science, University of Pittsburgh
["title of presentation" – transition]

-Respondent: Will Gray, Associate Professor of History, Purdue University
Open Discussion

• Constantin Iordachi, Associate Professor and Chair, Department of History, Central European University, Budapest
"The Memory of Communism as Lived Experience"

-Respondent: Jennifer Foray, Assistant Professor of History, Purdue University
Open Discussion

Reception
Location TBA

Part II: 8pm in Krannert Auditorium

Film Screening: A Kis Utazás [The Short Trip](Hungary, 2000)