

PANEL DISCUSSION

SEPTEMBER 11

Ten Years Later

Tuesday, September 13th, 2011

Wetherill Hall, Room 172

7:30pm

What have we accomplished in the decade since 9/11? What have we learned?

Panel presentations will address the impact of 9/11 on the economy, women, human rights, civil liberties, and foreign policy.

Discussion to follow.

Panelists will include Berenice Carroll, former Director, Women's Studies program;

Harry Targ, Coordinator, The Committee on Peace Studies;

and Jacob Hernandez, President, Amnesty International at Purdue University.

Free and open to all!

Presented by:

*The Purdue University Committee on Peace Studies * Lafayette Area Peace Coalition * Amnesty International at Purdue * The Social Justice Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Church * The Lafayette Friends Meeting*