

Natalie Coughlin

Friday March 23rd

6:30 pm

Class of 1950 Lecture Hall

Natalie Coughlin is the most decorated female Olympian in US history, collecting 12 medals in swimming at the 2004 and 2008 Summer games.

Join us as Natalie hosts a keynote speech discussing the impact of her mixed heritage Asian American identity on her athletic pursuits and answers your questions about her professional endeavors and personal passions.

Presented by The Asian American & Asian Resource & Cultural Center, University Residences, College of Liberal Arts, Honors College, Panhellenic Council, Office of the Dean of Students, Center for Intercultural Learning, Mentorship, Assessment & Research, College of Engineering, Purdue Athletics, Women's, Gender & Sexuality Studies Program, and College of Health & Human Sciences