UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

Justin S. Morrill Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Purdue University, 2015-present. Chief academic and administrative officer of the college working with the college's department heads, school directors, program directors, center directors, faculty, and staff to facilitate and nurture academic excellence at all levels from undergraduate and graduate education to faculty research and creative endeavor. The dean of the College of Liberal Arts is an endowed deanship, named in honor of Justin S. Morrill, who was a driving force in the 1862 College Land Grant Act, which created the foundation for universities such as Purdue. The legislation is now known as the Morrill Act in his honor. The College of Liberal Arts is home to the departments of Anthropology, English, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Sociology, the Brian Lamb School of Communication, the Patti and Rusty Rueff School of Visual and Performing Arts, the School of Interdisciplinary Studies, and the School of Languages and Cultures. The College has over 300 full-time faculty, 3,200 undergraduate students, and 750 graduate students.

Executive Associate Dean for the School of Public and Environmental Affairs on the Bloomington Campus, Indiana University, 2008-2015. The School's chief academic and administrative officer for SPEA on the Bloomington campus. This includes oversight of academic affairs, financial administration, academic program operations, career development, marketing and communications, personnel, information technology, and physical facilities for a $40 million academic unit with approximately 90 full-time faculty members, 120 part-time faculty members, 50 full-time staff members, and over 2,000 full-time undergraduate and graduate students across ten different degree programs. Key accomplishments: doubled total revenue for SPEA-Bloomington in five years within an RCM budgeting environment; raised over $4 million over four years to launch and support the SPEA VISTA Fellows Program and the Vietnam Young Leaders Award Program; 2012 USNEWS and World Report ranked SPEA-Bloomington the number two school of public affairs/ policy/administration in the nation – ahead of Harvard's Kennedy School of Government.

Director, Public Affairs & Public Policy Ph.D. Programs, School of Public & Environmental Affairs, Indiana University, 2006-08. Responsible for leading the school's social science doctoral programs, including the public affairs degree and a joint degree with the Department of Political Science in the College of Arts and Sciences; overseeing the administration of fellowships and student financial aid; and supervising program staff. Key accomplishment: Both programs were ranked in the top five by the most recent National Research Council rankings of doctoral programs in public affairs/policy/administration.

EXECUTIVE PUBLIC APPOINTMENTS

Director, Office of Research & Policy Development, The U.S. Corporation for National & Community Service, Washington, DC, 2002-04. This is a senior-level executive position that heads a division within a billion dollar federal agency and reports directly to the CEO who is a presidential appointee with U.S. Senate confirmation. Responsible for leading the agency's research, evaluation, and performance measurement efforts; providing consultation to the CEO on policy development, congressional relations, and public affairs; developing and implementing new initiatives; coordinating the agency's congressional budget submission, performance and accountability report, and strategic plan; and working with the Executive Office of the President (USA Freedom Corps and the Domestic Policy Council) as a member of the White House Task Force for Disadvantaged Youth and chairperson of the research committee. Key accomplishment: Created the official U.S. measure of volunteer behavior by developing the annual September supplement to the Current Population Survey which has been administered annually since 2002 by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

OTHER EXECUTIVE PUBLIC (VOLUNTEER) APPOINTMENTS

Commissioner & Chair, Indiana Commission on Community Service and Volunteerism, 2004-present (Elected Chairperson, 2005-11). Responsible for leading this state government commission that annually awards two million dollars in federal AmeriCorps grants, oversees the administration of these grants, and promotes community service and volunteerism across Indiana. Key accomplishment: Generated over 900 AmeriCorps service opportunities in Indiana for 2010 which is an historic high for the state.

Member, Indiana Community Investment Fund, Inc. Board of Directors, 2012-present. Responsible for overseeing the executive staff of this state-wide community development financial institution whose mission is to provide seed money, loans, and guidance for business that serve low-income and disadvantaged Hoosiers.

Member & President, South Central Community Action Program, Inc. Board of Directors. 2004-2010 (Elected President, 2006-2009). Responsible for leading the board of this six million dollar not-for-profit human service organization that administers federal and state anti-poverty programs, such as Head Start, Community-Services Block Grant funds, Low-Income Energy Assistance, and Section 8, to low-income residents in four south-central Indiana counties. Key accomplishment: Launched the first Move-the-Mountain anti-poverty program in Indiana.

Commissioner & Vice-Chair, Bloomington, Indiana Housing Authority Board of Commissioners, 1999-2002 (Elected Vice-Chairperson, 2000-02). Responsible for overseeing the administration of this thirteen million dollar municipal corporation that manages approximately 450 public housing units and 1,000 Section 8 housing vouchers. Key accomplishment: Prevented federal receivership of this potentially troubled housing authority.
