Wednesday March 20

- Sydney Tuller and Amanda Veile (Purdue), Karen Kramer (U Utah), Causes and Consequences of Cesarean Birth in Yucatec Maya Subsistence Farmers (10:00-11:50, Anthropological Examinations of Birthing Care)

- Lauren Murfree, “We are in the struggle together”: Faith & Feminist Activism in the Midwest (12:00-1:20, Gender Issues and Activism)

- Elizabeth Wirtz, Chair of Activism and Support: Community Responses to Gender Based Violence (GBV TIG) (12:00-1:20)

- Laura Zanotti, Roundtable Participant in Indigenous-Centered Collaborations in Applied Environmental Anthropology (12:00-1:20)

Thursday March 21

- Sherylyn Briller, Organizer of Advocacy, Public Engagement and Member Service: An SfAA/AAA Roundtable (10:00-11:50)

- Riall Nolan, Organizer of Becoming a Practicing Anthropologist: A Workshop for Anthropologists Seeking Non-Academic Careers (1:30-4:20)

- Anna Bird and Elizabeth Wirtz, Educating Engineers about International Development Project (3:30-5:20, Experiential Learning from Multiple Perspectives (Higher Ed TIG))

- Sherylyn Briller, Roundtable Participant in Turbulent Times for Engagement: Practicing Anthropology in Partnerships, Insights and Recommendations (NAPA) (3:30-5:20)

- Erika Carrillo, Accommodating Meal Time: The Central Role of Food in Elder Caregiving Discussions among San Francisco Families (3:30-5:20, Exploring Change among the Vulnerable: Interdisciplinary Perspectives (CONAA))

Friday March 22

- Riall Nolan and Elizabeth Briody, Organizers of Getting Practitioners’ Stories to a Wider Audience: Developing a Literature of Practice (8:00-11:00)
• Sherylyn Briller, Chair and Roundtable Participant in SfAA Collaborates with AAA to Change the Public Conversation About Migration and Displacement (10:00-11:50)

• Humera Dinar, What Has Actually Changed for Women?: An Account of Women Entrepreneurs and Structural Challenges in Northern Pakistan (10:00-11:50, Progress and Challenges in Development, Part II)

• Lauren Murfree, Laura Schwab-Reese, and Andrea Demaria, “This is by no means a murder-suicide. It is a mercy killing.”: Variations in NVDRS Narratives of Female versus Male Perpetrated Homicide-suicide (12:00-1:20, Gendered Violence: Encounters with the Law and the State (GBV TIG))

• Rachel King, A Space for Practice: International Learning Initiatives (1:30-4:00 Posters)

• Claire Sigworth, Making a Space for Practice: Prototyping New Applied Anthropology Pedagogy (1:30-4:00 Posters)

• Elizabeth Wirtz, Roundtable Participant in Gender-Based Violence, Decolonization, and the (Intersectional) Crisis of Representation (GBV TIG) (3:30-5:20)

Saturday March 23

• Zoe Nyssa, What Models Do (A Cautionary Tale of Conservation Stakeholders) (8:00-9:50, Using and Understanding Models, Social Networks, and PGIS – Zoe Nyssa, Chair)

• Savannah Schulte, Turikuza “Let’s Go” a Narrative of Resilience through Mobility: Understanding How Batwa Peoples Adapt to Turbulent Landscapes (10:00-11:50, State-Local Engagements in Heritage Practice, Preservation, and Tourism (Tourism TIG))