

Indiana Archaeology Month - Evening Lectures

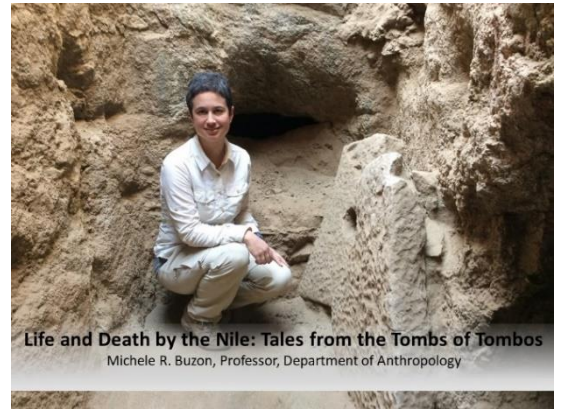

co-sponsored by the Tippecanoe County Historical Association & Purdue University's Department of Anthropology and Honors College

Join us Mondays at 6:00 pm in September at the Tippecanoe County Historical Association's History Center in downtown Lafayette (522 Columbia St.) or Arganbright Library, to hear archaeologists from Purdue University talk about their latest research.

Dr. Elizabeth Brite, Honors College
Soviet Archaeology and Its Legacies in the Deserts of Uzbekistan, Central Asia
Monday, 6:00 pm September 9th at the Arganbright Library.

Dr. Michele Buzon,
Department of Anthropology
Life and Death by the Nile: Tales from the Tombs of Tombos
Monday, 6:00 pm September 16th
History Center. Free Popcorn !!!

Life and Death by the Nile: Tales from the Tombs of Tombos
Michele R. Buzon, Professor, Department of Anthropology

Dr. Ian Lindsay, Department of Anthropology
The Archaeology of the South Caucasus Region
Monday, 6:00 pm September 23rd
History Center. Free Popcorn !!!

Dr. H. Kory Cooper,
Department of Anthropology
Ancient Copper Metallurgy in Alaska and Canada
Monday, 6:00 pm September 30th
History Center. Free Popcorn !!!

