THE
STAR SPANGLED BANNER
A PATRIOTIC SONG.

Baltimore. Printed and Sold at CARRS Music Store 36 Baltimore Street.
Air, Anacron in Heaven.

O! say can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming, Whose broad stripes & bright stars thy perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming, And the Rockets' red glare, the Bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our 3rd time Chorus.

Flag was still there, O! say does that star spangled Banner yet wave, O'er the Land of the free, and the home of the brave.

L.H.

On the shore dimly seen through the deep
Where the fies' haughty host in dread silence re,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses,
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected new shines in the stream,
'Tis the star-spangled banner, O long may it
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

(3)

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country, shall leave us no more,
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution,
No refuge could save the hireling and slave,
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave,
And the star-spangled banner, in triumph doth
O'er the Land &c.

(4)

O! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand,
Between their lov'd home, and the war's desolation,
Blest with vict'ry and peace may the heav'n rescued land,
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our Trust;"
And the star-spangled banner, in triumph shall wave,
O'er the Land &c.

For the Flute.
