In 2005 Working Title film produced the first feature film adaptation of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice (1813) since the American 1940 version, starring Greer Garson and Sir Laurence Olivier. With Kiera Knightly as Elizabeth Bennet (already made famous by Pirates of the Caribbean), this film combines elements of Romanticism and realism and adapts Austen's novel about love, marriage, misconceptions, and self-awareness for a modern audience.
