

Cornerstone Integrated Liberal Arts

YOU ARE INVITED!

“Love, Jealousy, and Deception: Entering the World of Othello”

The Cornerstone Pre-Performance Lecture

When: Monday, September 21st, 6 pm (Doors open at 5:45 pm)

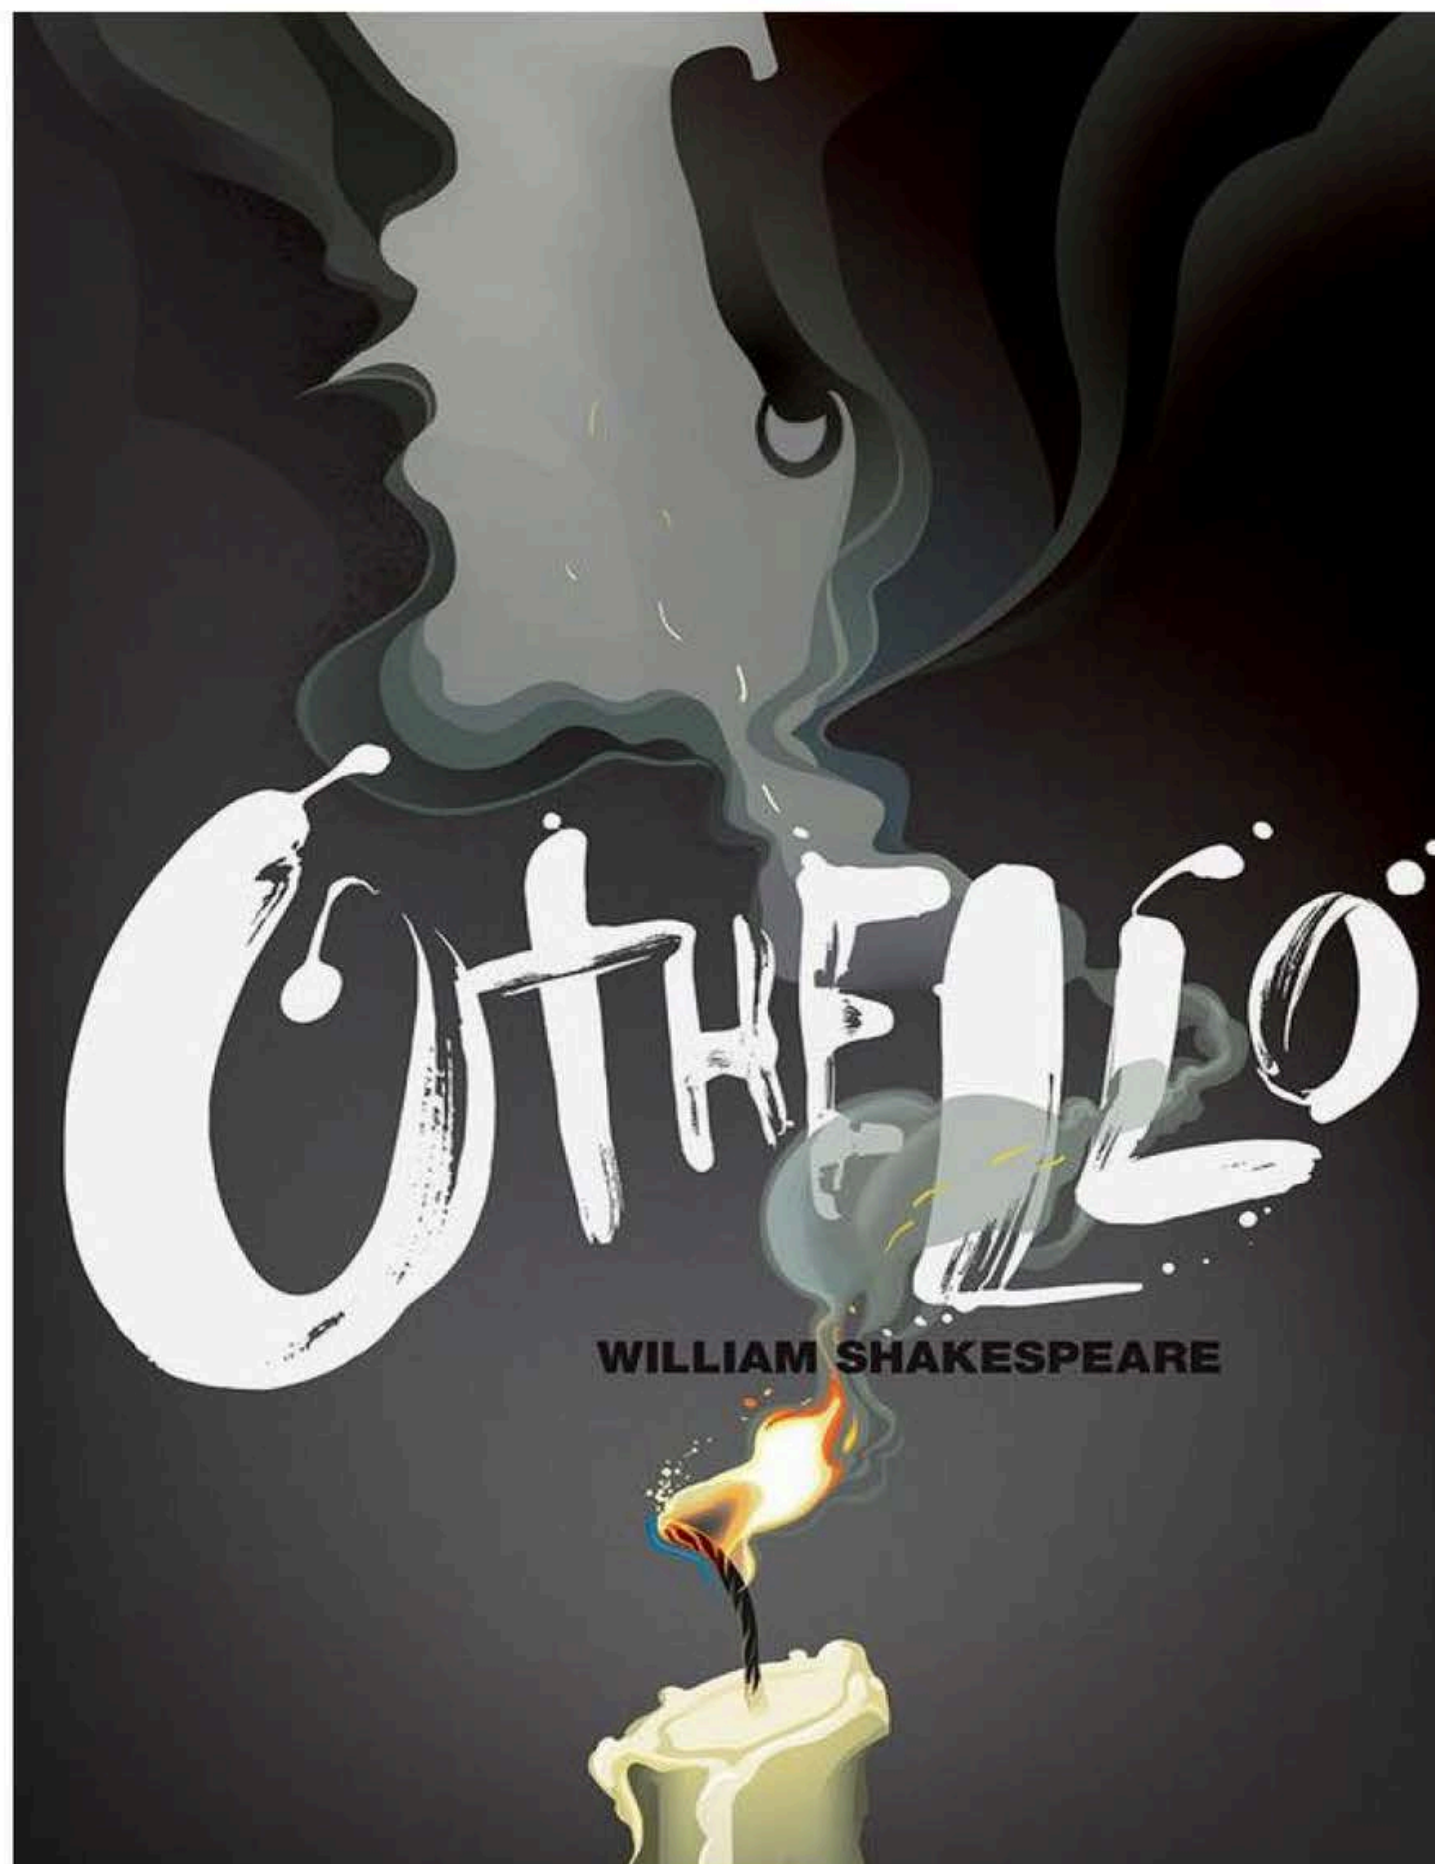

Where: Fowler Hall, Stewart Center

Who: Students in SCLA 101 or 102 and all!

Join Cornerstone Professor Tülin Ece Tosun as she presents the Pre-Performance Lecture preceding the staging of Shakespeare’s Othello by The Lord Chamberlain’s Men at Loeb Playhouse.

Tülin Ece Tosun is an Associate Teaching Professor in Cornerstone Integrated Liberal Arts and the Assistant Director for Cornerstone, Indianapolis. She received her Ph.D. in Comparative Literature from Purdue University in 2018. She specializes in Shakespeare and cross-cultural Mediterranean encounters in early modern travel narratives. Her work has appeared in Interactions (2012) and Academic Communication Textbook (2021). She is currently working on her book manuscript, Othello and the Ottoman Domestic Imaginary: Empire, Intimacy, and Tragedy in Shakespeare.

William Shakespeare's

Othello

THE LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S MEN

USE CODE CORNERSTONE26 FOR $22 TICKETS

CURRICULAR INTEGRATION RESIDENCY

FREE EDUCATIONAL LECTURE
Sept 21 / Fowler Hall / 6pm

CONVOS
PURDUE CONVOCATIONS

October 14 & 15
Loeb Playhouse / 7pm
CONVOCATIONS.ORG

Support from BOB & PATTI TRUITT

Additional support from LEONORA & HAROLD WOODMAN ENDOWMENT FOR THEATRE

WESTMINSTER VILLAGE
Live connected. Live well.

CORNERSTONE
INTEGRATED LIBERAL ARTS