
CORNERSTONE SPRING 2023 CONTEST: “LOVE”

This spring Cornerstone is seeking writings, artworks, videos, and poetry inspired by our discussions and readings in Transformative Texts, SCLA 101 and 102.

Our theme is Love – that range of emotions that can bring us happiness, excitement, satisfaction, and even euphoria as well as jealousy, sadness, and doubt. Love, whether it be for our friend, our beloved, our kin or country, or even humanity is almost always at the heart of powerful literature.

This spring we are looking for artwork, essays, short fiction, videos, or poetry about love and that have been inspired by your readings in Transformative Texts.

Eligibility: Any student currently enrolled in SCLA 101 or 102

Criteria: Artwork, essays, short fiction, videos, or poetry. A committee composed of Cornerstone faculty will judge submissions based on originality and creativity.

Prizes: Amazon Gift Cards. First Place: $95; Second place: $75; 3 honorary mentions: $50. Winners will automatically be nominated for publication in The Cornerstone Review.

Timeline: Submission deadline: March 24, 2023. Please send your submissions to Dr. Ayala-Chittick at smatosay@purdue.edu. All files must be labeled with your last name. In your entry, please list your full name and your professor’s name.

Winners announced: April 14, 2023.
