

Budd Receives Artist Development Grant

Amy Lynn Budd, visiting assistant professor of theatre, has been awarded an Indiana Arts Commission Individual Artist Development Grant of $2,000 in support of her participation in Goodspeed Musicals' Professional Directing Observership Program. (Known colloquially as "The Goodspeed," this theatre was previously named the Goodspeed Opera House.) Both the grant and the program are highly selective.

This support allows her to sit in on rehearsals of Darling Grenadine with director Kristin Hanggi (Tony nominated for Rock of Ages) and spend time with nationally and internationally known theatre artists from first rehearsal through the first week of performances of this new musical.

The IAC Individual Artist Program (IAP) provides support to artists in all disciplines for career development projects. Artists may request up to $2,000.

###