

Dionne Recognized for Excellence in Teaching

Rich Dionne, Clinical Assistant Professor in Theatre, has received the Patti and Rusty Rueff School of Visual and Performing Arts Excellence in Teaching Award this year.

The VPA Excellence in Teaching Award Committee noted many strengths in Rich's teaching including his ability to listen to each student's contribution, and demonstrating respect for the student's collaboration in the dialogue. The Committee also nominated Rich for the Exceptional Early Career Teaching Award, which was created to honor faculty members for their outstanding undergraduate teaching on the West Lafayette campus.

###