

McNamara Receives the Purdue University-American Academy in Rome Award

Michael McNamara, Associate Professor of Lighting Design in Theatre, has received the Purdue University-American Academy in Rome Award. His research leave will be May 21 - June 18, 2018.

The American Academy in Rome is a leading American overseas center for independent studies and advanced research in the fine arts and humanities. For over a hundred years the Academy has been dedicated to its mission of inspiring individuals in the arts to achieve significant contributions in their fields.

The Patti and Rusty Rueff School of Visual and Performing Arts at Purdue University is an Affiliate Member of the American Academy in Rome and sends senior level faculty (associate and full professors) to pursue creative activity, scholarship and research in the fields of Art and Design, Theatre, Dance and Music.

###