

2007 American Studies Symposium

Thursday, April 19 and Friday, April 20

Thursday, April 19th

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. George Lipsitz, University of California, Santa Barbara

“Abolition Democracy and Social Justice: Remapping American Studies”

STEW 314

6:00-7:30 p.m.

Friday, April 20th

8:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Stewart Center, Rooms 313 and 318

Graduate Student Panels

Further information on panel topics can be found at the American Studies website : www.cla.purdue.edu/american-studies/events/symposia.cfm

6:00-7:00 p.m.

East Faculty Lounge, Purdue Memorial Union

Reception followed by presentation of Chester E. Eisinger Awards and American Studies Awards

7:00-9:00 p.m.

Keynote Speaker:

“Audiopolitics: Measures of Global Soundscapes”

Yale Working Group on Globalization and Culture

Featuring: Amanda Ciafone, Michael Denning, Rossen Djagalov,

Daniel Gilbert, Naomi Paik, Van Truong, Charlie Veric and Kirsten Weld.

Questions: Email Delayne Graham (dkgraham@purdue.edu)