

“Globalization, Transnationalism, and the Future of American Studies”

Spring 2006 American Studies Lecture, Colloquia and Workshop Series

Friday, January 13

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Beering Hall, Room B222

Workshop on Proposals for the American Studies Association Meeting in Oakland, CA

This workshop is designed to review and sharpen proposals for the ASA meeting.

Friday, January 20

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Beering Hall, Room B222

Workshop on the American Studies Curriculum

This workshop is an open discussion of the present configuration of the course requirements for the American Studies degree. All students and faculty welcome to attend!

Friday, January 27

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Beering Hall, Room B222

Workshop on American Studies 601

This workshop is for teachers and students of AMST 601. We will discuss the role of the course in the AMST curriculum and possible ways to teach it.

Thursday, February 9

7:00 p.m.

Math Hall, Room 175

“Activism and Social Justice: Then and Now”

Dr. Bernardine Dohrn, Clinical Associate Professor of Law and Director of the Children and Family Justice Center, Northwestern University; former member of the Weather Underground.

Friday, February 17

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Beering Hall, Room B222

Workshop on American Studies and Service Learning

This workshop is for teachers and students to discuss ways of incorporating service learning and internships into their courses and plans of study.

Thursday, February 23

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Brown Hall, Room 3100

“Resisting Redemption: The Black Middle Class in Darien, Georgia, 1870”

Dr. Richard Hogan, Professor, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Purdue University

Friday, March 3

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Beering Hall, Room B222

“‘Lesbians,’ Modernity and the Problems of Global Translation: Female Sexualities in Indonesia”

Dr. Evelyn Blackwood, Chair, Anthropology, Purdue University

Friday, March 24-Saturday, March 25

American Studies Recruitment Weekend

Thursday, March 30-Friday, March 31

American Studies Symposium

“Queering American Studies: Beyond Borders and Boundaries”

- Thursday, March 30, Keynote Address 7:00 p.m., Stewart Center, Room 214 C&D
“Black Spots upon the Memory’: Writing the Stories of Subaltern Lives”
Dr. Tiya Miles, University of Michigan
- Friday, March 31, Keynote Address and Program Awards Ceremony 7:00 p.m., Purdue Memorial Union, East Faculty Lounge
“Queering American Studies in a Time of War and Shopping”
Dr. Martin Manalansan, III, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Friday, April 14

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Beering Hall, Room B222

Topic to be announced.

Paul Schueler, Tippecanoe County Historical Association Archivist and Special Collections Expert