

American Studies Spring 2008 Lecture Series & Colloquia

Friday, January 11
2:00–4:00 p.m.
UNIV 117
Faculty Meeting—Future of American Studies

Friday, January 17
2:00–4:00
UNIV 117
Program Meeting (all students & faculty)
– Future of American Studies

Friday, February 1
2:00–4:00 p.m.
UNIV 117
“Critical Pedagogy and Praxis”
Nathalia Jaramillo

Wednesday, February 6
2:00–4:00 p.m.
Black Cultural Center, Multipurpose Room 1
“Difficult Dialogues Series...On Race 2008”
Graduate Student Panel featuring:
Kevin Brooks, Ph.D. student, Curriculum & Instruction
Charles Park, Ph.D. student, American Studies
Stephany Spaulding, Ph.D., American Studies
(Co-sponsored with the Black Cultural Center)

Monday, February 18
“Pouring Tea: Black Gay Men of the South Tell Their Tales”
E. Patrick Johnson
Chair, Department of Performance Studies &
African American Studies
Northwestern University
(Co-sponsored with the Black Cultural Center)

Wednesday, March 5
2:00–4:00 p.m.
Black Cultural Center, Multipurpose Room 1
“Difficult Dialogue Series...On Race 2008”
Film & Discussion on “Shattering the Silence” (focus on Minority Faculty)
(Co-sponsored with the Black Cultural Center)

Wednesday, April 2
2:00–4:00 p.m.
Black Cultural Center, Multipurpose Room 1
“Difficult Dialogue Series...On Race 2008”
African American and Latino Communities Dialogue between communities.
(Co-sponsored with the Black Cultural Center)

Thursday–Saturday, April 3–5
“Prophetstown Revisited: A Summit on Early Native American Studies”
(See <http://www.matrix.msu.edu/ptown2008/index.html> for events and information).

Thursday, April 17 and Friday, April 18
American Studies Symposium
“Critical American Studies: Examining the Intersections of Race, Class and Gender”

All events sponsored or co-sponsored by the Program in American Studies.