Celebrate International Women’s Day!
Sponsored by the African American Studies & Research Center, the Center for Research on Diversity and Inclusion, and the Women’s, Gender, & Sexuality Studies Program

MARY CHURCH TERRELL, BLACK WOMEN, AND THE RISE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

MARY CHURCH TERRELL, BLACK WOMEN, AND THE RISE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

MARCH 10, 2016 | 3-4:30 PM | BLACK CULTURAL CENTER

LECTURE BY DR. ALISON PARKER
PROFESSOR OF HISTORY, SUNY

Please join Dr. Parker as she talks about Mary Church Terrell: suffragist, founding member of the NAACP, and the first president of the National Association of Colored Women’s Clubs.

Alison M. Parker is a professor of history at the College at Brockport, State University of New York (SUNY). She majored in art history and history at the University of California, Berkeley and earned a Ph.D. from the Johns Hopkins University. Parker teaches about the intersections of gender, race, disability, citizenship and the law in U.S. history. On her campus, she has been helping to build a coalition of students, faculty, and staff who are promoting a wide-ranging anti-racism agenda.

Photo: Library of Congress, Washington, D.C., neg. no. LC USZ 62 54724