Sociology Out and About

Jean Beaman was appointed a member of ASA’s Committee on the Status of Racial and Ethnic Minorities in Sociology (through 2020).

Rachel Einwohner and Elle Rochford presented a paper at the Winter Meetings of Sociologists for Women in Society in Atlanta GA, in January 2018.

Warren Dukes will present a Diversity and Inclusion workshop at the 9th Annual Key Executive Leadership Conference at American University, in Washington D.C. on June 6.

Mangala Subramaniam had a featured article in Purdue University’s Annual Research Report, “Earth + Space”.

Jean Beaman was featured in New Books in Sociology podcast in February.

Warren Dukes has been selected to present a workshop, “The Effects of Race in LE Cultures-What LE Executives Can Do to Improve Minority Officers Professional Mobility & Community Relations” at the 2018 NOBLE Conference this July in Hollywood, Florida.

Update on Miao Li (PhD 2015). Miao’s family was involved in a serious car accident on 1/12/2018. His father died and his mother remains in a coma. Miao’s wife and young son sustained head injuries but are slowly recovering. Miao is taking time off to be at home with his wife and son. Miao and his 2 oldest daughters were not involved in the accident. A Go Fund Me page has been established if you wish to help. Miao is completing a post-doctoral fellowship at Notre Dame with Sarah Mustillo.

Adam Kotanko shared this picture of his daughter, Daniela Sophia who was born on January 15. Daniela weighed in at 8 lbs. 4 oz. You can see that she doesn’t mind using dad’s finger as a pacifier! Mom, dad, and daughter are doing fine. Such a cutie!

Sociology and Safety – Good News!

Sociology completed and passed its annual Safety Audit. Thank you to all who responded to emails. Anyone who completed the Hazard Communication training will not have to repeat it. A big thank you to the following people who volunteered (or were volunteered) for the Safety Committee: Jeremy Reynolds, Karen Studebaker, Elle Rochford, Traci Robinson, and JoAnne Yang.

A “Safety Corner” has been established in the N-S hallway with emergency information. Check it out for updates.
