RESERVED SEATING IN THE MALLETT THEATRE

available at www.cla.purdue.edu/theatre in September, or call the Theatre office at (765) 494-3074.

PARKING

The scheduled demolition of Marsteller Parking Garage in May 2016 will bring changes in parking arrangements for our patrons. We are working with Parking Facilities on a plan to reserve parking spaces in the Parker lot for VIPs, patrons attending the performance of the Purdue University Opera, Purdue Alumni Pow der Puff Football Party, Purdue Women’s Basketball Home Games, and Purdue Women’s Basketball Away Games.

MFA TERMINAL PROJECTS IN DESIGN

Outsiders by Kit Kat Klub, 2016

Directed by Amy Lynn Budd

By Tony Award-winner Mary Zimmerman. An adaptation of a group of lesser-known fairy tales creates this dark and mysterious story of a child and the frightening playmate with whom her parents leave her. As the playmate makes a claim to her childhood, the children of the fairy world wither as their words turn ominous, a foreshadowing of things to come.

APPROPRIATE FOR ALL AGES

By Beth Henley

September 23–October 2

Carole and Gordon Mallett Theatre

Directed by Richard Sullivan Lee

Winner of the 1988 Pulitzer Prize. The scene is Old Granddaddy’s home in Hazlehurst, Mississippi. The three Magrath sisters, Mag, Babe, and Lorrie, have reunited there after Babes has lost her husband, flowers a stereotypical family, each has adored her loving and kind of. Past resentment babbles to the surface as the sisters are forced to deal with assorted relatives and past relationships while coping with Babes’s latest incident. Each sister is forced to face the consequences of her “crimes of the heart” as she has committed in order to escape the past and seize the future.
