27th Annual AASRC Symposium on African American Culture & Philosophy
“Afro-Latin America: Rethinking, Identity, Politics & Culture”
Keynote Speaker: Dr. Kim Butler, Rutgers University
Plenary Speaker: Dr. Gwendolyn Midlo-Hall, Michigan State University
Purdue University • West Lafayette, IN 47907
December 1-3, 2011

We are seeking individual papers and panel submissions from across disciplines related to Afro-Latin America. A detailed call for papers is on our website; however, sample topics include:

- Literature
- Gender
- Sexuality
- Hip-Hop Culture
- Religion
- Military
- Sports
- Entertainment
- Marronage & Resistance
- and Racial Belonging

We particularly welcome complete panel submissions.

Abstracts for individual presentations (500 words or less) and panels (1,500 words or less) should be submitted by May 2, 2011.

For each participant, please include a short biography with institutional affiliation and e-mail address.

Registration Fee for the 27th Annual Symposium: $75.00 for faculty & guest attendees; $50.00 for students