COM 38199 Professional Practice Cooperative Education I
New Course
Co-Op is an academic program with oversight provided by assigned Faculty Coordinators who serve as the Instructor for participating students. The program is coordinated by the Office of Professional Practice with cooperation of participating employers. Students submit a written summary report of their experience and evaluations of the company and their performance.

COM 38299 Professional Practice Cooperative Education II
New Course
Co-Op is an academic program with oversight provided by assigned Faculty Coordinators who serve as the Instructor for participating students. The program is coordinated by the Office of Professional Practice with cooperation of participating employers. Students submit a written summary report of their experience and evaluations of the company and their performance.

COM 38399 Professional Practice Cooperative Education III
New Course
Co-Op is an academic program with oversight provided by assigned Faculty Coordinators who serve as the Instructor for participating students. The program is coordinated by the Office of Professional Practice with cooperation of participating employers. Students submit a written summary report of their experience and evaluations of the company and their performance.

HIST 34505- Arabs in American Eyes
Course Revision: course description, course number, course title
This course explores Arab-American relations over the past 300 years, using American writings on the Middle East and North Africa as a prism for viewing evolving conceptions of national identity and global power in the United States.

HIST 46300- Creation of American Legal Culture
Expire Course

POL 22900- Emerging Problems in Political Science
Course Revision: Credit Hours
The Department of Political Science needs a variable-credit (1-3), variable-title course to provide a vehicle for developing innovative learning opportunities for our students that do not fit the traditional 3-credit model. For example, the department has been funded by the Provost’s Office to create a set of data science modules to form a one-credit class. This one-credit class will contribute to the university’s new Integrative Data Science Initiative.