5. DEAN’S REPORT:
   Dr. Contreni provided some updates:
   - CLA is once again the largest College in the University for undergraduate enrollment with 6,654 students, and CLA is the second largest College in terms of graduate enrollment.
   - CLA’s new department of Anthropology is in its first semester of operation. The dean introduced Dr. Ellen Gruenbaum, the inaugural head of the department, and mentioned a ribbon-cutting ceremony to be held on October 8 at 12 noon in STON.
The dean announced that Dr. Matthias Steup is the new head of the department of Philosophy.
Dr. Emily Allen is the new director for the CLA Honors Program.
The College has 28 new faculty, and they are featured on the CLA Web site.
The Center for Instructional Excellence asked CLA to participate in a new pilot workshop on teaching undergraduates at Purdue University. The very successful workshop was held on August 18, and it will now be expanded to other colleges.
The College Web site is new, and Dr. Contreni urged faculty to browse it and become familiar with it. The Web site will soon have a new page on promotion policies and guidelines.
Experience Liberal Arts will again be held during the month of October. James Earl Jones will be the kickoff speaker.
Dr. Contreni is teaching a course called “LA Influentials” this year. CLA alumni are invited to be guest speakers and share their experiences while on campus and along their career paths.
New faculty recruitment is beginning, and the College is also recruiting three new department heads – in Psychological Sciences, Sociology, and the Rueff Department of Visual & Performing Arts.

Preliminary talks regarding a possible BA degree in Economics from CLA have begun with the Department of Economics in the School of Management. The Department of Economics would also offer a BS degree in their school, which would be more mathematical, statistical and quantitative, while the BA degree from CLA would be more social science.
The University has new senior administrative staff – Ms. Teri Thompson is the new vice president for Marketing and the Purdue News Service, and Dr. Richard Buckius is the new vice president for Research. The University is searching for a new executive vice president and treasurer and a new dean of the Graduate School.
Provost Woodson and President Cordova are very interested in a common core curriculum across the University. They both are focusing their energies on students, academics, and student success.
Dr. Barbara Dixon is part of a committee that will choose a book for all incoming freshmen to read. She explained how the book chosen will be used in classrooms and Boiler Gold Rush, and asked for suggestions.
The CLA Strategic Plan needs to be updated since the Board of Trustees approved a new University Strategic Plan in June 2008. A task force is being identified, with the expectation that a draft will be completed by the end of the semester. The CLA Senate will then review the draft in the spring semester.

1. APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF FEBRUARY 17, 2009:

The minutes were approved as distributed.

2. REPORTS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEES:

A) Professor Christine Weber-Fox (SLHS), chair of the Curriculum Committee, reported on the March and April committee meetings. Fifteen new courses, 17 course revisions, two course deletions, nine program revisions, three new programs and two program deletions were approved. (See #08-13 and #08-14.) Dr. Weber-Fox pointed out that HK 11101, a new course, is a 2-credit course, not a 3-credit course as described. The Senate accepted and approved the committee’s report, with the amendment that HK 11101 is a 2-credit course.

B) Professor Nancy Gabin (HIST), chair of the Educational Policy Committee, reported that, as part of its ongoing review of courses in the CLA Core Curriculum, the EPC approved courses in American Sign Language and Foreign Languages & Literatures to satisfy the Other Languages category of the Core. The committee approved HEBR 385 for inclusion in the Core. The committee also approved a list of learning outcomes for the CLA Core created by Dr. B. Dixon for the College’s upcoming accreditation review. (See #08-15.) The Senate accepted and approved the committee’s report. Dr. Gabin then brought forward the committee’s recommendation regarding CLA admissions requirements (#08-11) for approval. She answered questions that were raised at the last Senate meeting during discussion. A revision of the EPC’s recommendation was brought to the floor by Prof. P. Draper. Discussion followed. The revision was defeated by voice vote. A vote was then taken on the original recommendation, and it passed by voice vote.

C) Professor R. E. Smith (COM), chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee, reported on a request from the Department of Psychological Sciences to authorize a clinical faculty position. The request falls well within the limits on clinical faculty positions in the department, College, and University. Discussion followed. The request for a clinical faculty position in Psychological Sciences was approved by voice vote.

D) Professor Anne Fliotsos (VPA), chair of the Nominating & Elections Committee, presented the slate of nominees for Senate and College committees and called for nominations from the floor. There were none, and the slate was approved. (See ballot.) Dr. Fliotsos read the nominees for vice chair of the Senate. A vote was taken by paper ballot, and Charles Ross was elected as vice chair for 2009-10.

3. OLD BUSINESS:

Dr. Contreni said further work on CLA’s new strategic plan has been suspended, due to new preliminary discussions about a new college at Purdue and a possible reconfiguration of the College of Liberal Arts.

4. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Associate Dean David Santogrossi reported on current discussions across campus about a University core curriculum. The target date for a draft document is May 2010. He answered questions during the discussion that followed.

B. Preliminary discussions are underway regarding a new college – College of Human Development & Health Sciences is the working title. This is being driven by the University’s new strategic plan. Departments in the colleges of Consumer & Family Sciences, Liberal Arts, and Pharmacy, Nursing & Health Sciences would be affected. In CLA, the departments affected would be Communication, Health
Kinesiology, Psychological Sciences, and Speech, Language & Hearing Sciences. Ultimately, the faculty in each department would determine where the department and their students would be most successful. A retreat is scheduled in May 2009, and a draft document is expected by the end of summer 2009. Discussion followed.

5. DEAN’S REPORT:

Dr. Contreni summarized recent reports in the media about the state budget, and he noted that the state revenue forecasts continue to decline. The University has suspended merit raises for this year, although activity reports should be submitted as always. The College has been asked to plan for a 3% cut in operating budget over the next two years. In answer to questions about faculty hires, the dean said the College would have very few hires for 2010-11.

6. ADJOURNMENT: The meeting adjourned at 4:35 pm.

Respectfully submitted:

Barbara Welch
Administrative Assistant to the Dean
