Curriculum August 2019

ASL 30100- American Sign Language V
Course Revision- Offer Existing Course at another Campus

ASL 36100- The Structure of American Sign Language I: Phonology and Morphology
Course Revision- Offer Existing Course at another Campus

ASL 36200- The Structure of American Sign Language II: Syntax, Semantics and Language Use
Course Revision- Offer Existing Course at another Campus

ASL 36400- Introduction to Structure of American Sign Language
Course Revision- Offer Existing Course at another Campus

MUS 16100- Class Piano and Musicianship I
Course Revision- Change in Course Attributes

MUS 16200- Class Piano and Musicianship II
Course Revision- Change in Course Attributes

SOC 40900- Social Networks
New Course
Social networks are patterns of social relationships among people, organizations, and other entities (words, events, etc.) that allow communication and influence and provide a context for social life. This course considers social networks both on and off the Internet that are important in people’s lives for finding dates, getting jobs, maintaining friends and family, finding and maintaining identities, belonging to groups, and communication and influence more generally.

SPAN 48500- Food and Culture in the Hispanic World
New Course
Advanced-level language and culture course about food culture in the Spanish-speaking world. It covers gastronomy, celebrations, history, art, mythology, and other aspects of daily life related to the culinary traditions of the Hispanic countries. Students will further develop their speaking, listening, reading and writing abilities in Spanish. They will have the opportunity to apply their skills in practical contexts and discuss cultural considerations, as well as participate in some hands-on cooking experience.