2018 Phi Alpha Theta Regional Conference
Saturday, March 24th, 2018
Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN

This undergraduate conference aims to provide a platform for students to share their historical research and network with peers and professional historians in the region. Organized by the Purdue Phi Alpha Theta chapter, this conference welcomes Phi Alpha Theta members across the Midwest, but membership is not required to participate.

Areas of interest for this conference include, but are not limited to, the following topics: race, social change, women, LGBTQ communities, war, poverty, religion, drugs, immigration, free speech and technology.

The conference will feature a luncheon with a keynote address by Dr. David Atkinson, Purdue University.

To submit a paper, please email the following cover sheet and a 100-word abstract of the proposed research paper by January 5, 2018 to phialphathetapu@gmail.com.

Notification of paper acceptances will be sent by February 1, 2018.

E-mail Dr. Kathryn Brownell at brownell@purdue.edu with any further questions.
