Have you ever been to London? This course will show you the REAL London!

London as the Crossroads of the world of migrants, workers, students, expatriates, women, activists, artists and refugees.

We will explore the long history of London as the imperial center of commerce and culture, capitalism and commodities, and everyday life.

This 3 credit course will run June 1-June 28 with TWO FULL WEEKS in London. Course will include walking tours, art exhibits, theater and research at the world renowned BRITISH LIBRARY

Our host University will be University of East London.

Course is open to undergraduate students in all majors.
