Germany: Intersections of History and Philosophy

Friday, October 24 (University Hall 019)

2:00-3:30  Christopher Yeomans (Purdue), “Perspectives without Privileges: On the Role of the Estates in Hegel’s Political Philosophy”

3:45-5:15  William Gray (Purdue), “The Past Isn’t Past, But the Dead Are Dead: Why Moral Duty Shouldn’t Define Historical Inquiry”

5:30-7:00  Keynote Address: Terry Pinkard (Georgetown), “Agency Embedded in History”

Saturday, October 25 (Beering Hall 1260)

9:00-10:30  Dana Tulodziecki (Purdue), “Case Studies in Philosophy of Science”

10:45-12:15  Pierre Keller (UC Riverside), “Kant’s Revolutionary Thought: Why History Matters to Philosophy and Science”

1:30-3:00  Keynote Address: Charles Ingrao (Purdue), “Aufklärung, Absolutism and Germany’s Sonderweg”

Contact: Christopher Yeomans (cyeomans@purdue.edu)