College of Liberal Arts-Dean’s Office Department of History and Department of Political Science

presents

Rajendra M. Abhyankar, Ph.D., former Ambassador of India to the European Union, Belgium, Luxembourg, Turkey, Azerbaijan and Syria and Professor of Practice of Diplomacy and Public Affairs at Indiana University

Lecture:
“Syria: The Tragedy of a Pivotal State.”
Thursday
November 12, 2015
1:30pm
STEW 279

Professor Rajendra M. Abhyankar has had a distinguished diplomatic career (1968-2005) in India’s Foreign Service. He served as Ambassador of India to the European Union, Belgium and Luxembourg (2004 to his retirement in 2005); Secretary in Ministry of External Affairs for the Government of India (2001-04); Consul General of India in San Francisco, CA (1998-2001); Ambassador of India to Turkey & Azerbaijan (1996-1998); Ambassador of India to Syria (1992-1996). He was Counsellor at the Embassy of India in Baghdad, Iraq, as well as various diplomatic offices in Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Maldives, Cyprus, Rome, San Marino, Belgium and the UN in Geneva. His philanthropy work has included the Asia Foundation in San Francisco and India; the Hinduja Foundation-Mumbai, the Jai Ho Trust, the India Heritage Trust-Mumbai and Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute. He is the co-editor (w/ Shrilank Paranjape) of Afghanistan post-2014: India’s Options and Challenges (Kalinga Publishers, New Delhi, 2015). He has authored Stuff happens: An Anecdotal Insight into Indian Diplomacy (New Delhi, 2014) and The Crossing—a novel set in Sri Lanka (Bloomington, 2014). His research interests include: International relations and diplomacy, its practice and multiple dimensions; and the non-profit sector and philanthropy. H. Abhyankar is currently a Professor of Practice of Diplomacy and Public Affairs at Indiana University, Bloomington, IN.