

Alan Rosenberg is Professor of Philosophy, Emeritus at Queens College of the City University of New York. His scholarly work has focused on philosophical issues relating to the Holocaust, philosophical issues that arise in connection to psychoanalysis, as well as key themes in Continental philosophy, value theory, and philosophy of the social sciences. Rosenberg is the co-author of over 80 journal articles and book chapters. He is also the co-editor of numerous books including Echoes From the Holocaust: Philosophical Reflections on a Dark Time (Temple University Press, 1988); Healing Their Wounds: Psychotherapy and Holocaust Survivors (Praeger, 1989); Psychoanalytic Versions of the Human Condition (New York University Press, 1998); Contemporary Portrayals of Auschwitz: Philosophical Challenges (Prometheus Books, 2000); Foucault and Heidegger: Critical Encounters (University of Minnesota Press, 2003); Experiments in Thinking the Holocaust: Auschwitz, Modernity and Philosophy (Polish edition: Wydawnictwo Naukowe "Scholar," 2004); and Reading Nietzsche at the Margins (Purdue University Press, 2008). Rosenberg served as co-editor of the electronic journal Foucault Studies for three years and, as of March 2007, became the Managing Editor. He held that position until 2012 when he became Associate Editor. In September of 2008 Rosenberg occupied the Visiting Professor's Chair of Philosophy at the Copenhagen Business School, Copenhagen, Denmark. Peking University bought the rights to translate Foucault and Heidegger: Critical Encounters into Chinese (2010).
