

The Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies Program
and the

Women, Gender, and Leadership Class

present a documentary in celebration of Women's History Month 2015.

"DIVIDE IN CONCORD"

TUESDAY, MARCH 10TH

4:30-6:30 PM

STANLEY COULTER HALL 239

With a post film discussion led by Dr. TJ Boisseau, Director of Women, Gender, & Sexuality Studies Program.

"Divide in Concord is a typical tale of a sweet old lady trying to make her small town a better place, except her small town was ground zero for the American Revolution and the new empire she's fighting is bottled water."

<http://wegothiscovered.com/movies/hot-docs-divide-concord-review>

WGSS, THE BUTLER CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP AND EXCELLENCE, PURDUE LIBRARIES, AND THE BRIAN LAMB SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION.