Information for Chinese Placement

We can include:

If you are a native speaker of Chinese, you should not be taking this test (definition of native speaker can be found further down on the main webpage). You are welcome to take advanced Chinese literature and culture courses, including: CHNS 241, 280, 281, 285, 305, 313, 330, 341, 342, 490, 594 and LC490/A&D 391 "History of Chinese Art".

If you have any questions about policies or courses please contact the following professors in their respective areas:

Professor Wei Hong (hongwei@purdue.edu): CHNS 101-402 Chinese language; Heritage Chinese;
Professor Daniel Hsieh (dhsieh@purdue.edu): classical Chinese language and literature
Professor Hongjian Wang (wang2512@purdue.edu): modern Chinese literature and film