

Ty Miller

Curriculum Vitae

Purdue University
700 W. State Street
West Lafayette, IN 47907

Phone: (814) 215-0504
Mill1187@purdue.edu

Education

- 2018 (Exp) Ph.D. in Sociology, Purdue University
Dissertation: “The Consequences of Legalizing Recreational Marijuana: Evidence from Colorado and Washington”

Committee: Brian Kelly (Chair), Michael T. Light (Wisconsin-Madison), Mike Vuolo (Ohio State), Bert Useem
- 2013 M.S. in Sociology, Purdue University
Thesis: "Religious Involvement, Belief, and Non-religiosity: Effects on Delinquency across the Early Life Course.”
- 2011 B.A. Criminal Justice, The Pennsylvania State University- Altoona

Research and Teaching Interests

Crime, law, and deviance; Policy implications; Substance use; Immigration; Religion, Quantitative Methods, Theory.

Awards and Honors

- 2016-17 National Institute of Justice Graduate Research Fellow ($32,000)
- 2016-17 PROMISE Award, Purdue College of Liberal Arts, Purdue ($2,250)
- 2015 Purdue Research Foundation Grant, College of Liberal Arts, Purdue ($3,000)
- 2012 Ross Fellowship Award, Department of Sociology, Purdue ($16,500)

Peer Reviewed Articles

- 2017 Michael T. Light, Ty Miller, Brian C. Kelly “Undocumented Immigration, Drug Problems, and driving under the influence (DUI) in the US, 1990-2014.”
American Journal of Public Health: Online First doi:10.2105/AJPH.2017.303884

Manuscripts Under Review

Ty Miller and Mike Vuolo “Deviance, Religion, and Reciprocation: A Test of the Anti-Ascetic Hypothesis and Social Control across the Early Life Course”

Michael T. Light and Ty Miller “Does Undocumented Immigration Increase Crime?”

Bert Useem and Ty Miller “Ferguson Effect and the Double-Edged Sword of Protest”

Manuscripts in Progress

Ty Miller “Emerging Adulthood and The Age-Crime Curve: Does Delaying Young Adulthood Delay Desistance?”

Ty Miller and Mike Vuolo “Last Hired, First Fired: Employment among Criminally Involved Young People Through the Great Recession” Paper in progress.

Ty Miller “The Effects of Legalizing Marijuana: Does Legalizing Recreational Marijuana Influence Crime Rates.”

Conference Presentations

- 2017 Michael T. Light and Ty Miller “Does Undocumented Immigration Increase Crime?” American Sociological Association Meetings, Montreal ON
- Michael T. Light, Ty Miller, Brian C. Kelly “ Undocumented Immigration, Drug Problems, and driving under the influence (DUI) in the US, 1990-2014.” American Sociological Association Meetings, Montreal
- Ty Miller “Marijuana Legalization: Does it Influence Violent and Property Crime.” American Society of Criminology Meetings, Philadelphia
- 2016 Ty Miller “Emerging Adulthood and The Age-Crime Curve: Does Delaying Young Adulthood Delay Desistance?” American Society of Criminology Meetings, New Orleans
- 2015 Ty Miller and Mike Vuolo. “Last Hired, First Fired: Employment among Criminally Involved Young People through the Great Recession.” American Society of Criminology Meetings, Washington DC
- 2013 Ty Miller and Mike Vuolo. "Religious Involvement, Belief, and Non-religiosity: Effects on Delinquency across the Early Life Course.” American Society of Criminology Annual Meeting, Atlanta

Teaching and Research Experience

Research

2016-18 Journal of Health and Social Behavior- Managing Editor for Reviews

2013 Research Assistant, Mike Vuolo, Purdue University

Teaching

2015-16 Criminology, Purdue University

2014 Social Problems, Purdue University: Online course

2014 (TA) Introduction to Statistics in Sociology, Purdue

2013 (TA) Religion in America, Purdue

2013 (TA) Introduction to Sociology, Purdue

Service

Professional

2015-present Reviewer for Journal of Drug Issues

Department

2015 Purdue University Sociology Department Teaching Committee

2014-2015 Sociology Graduate Organization President

Professional Memberships

American Sociological Association Sections: Crime, Law, and Deviance; Alcohol, Drugs and Tobacco; Sociology of Religion

American Society of Criminology