

SCHOLARSHIP AVAILABLE

FOR UNDERGRADUATE OR GRADUATE STUDENTS

APPLY FOR THE JOHN CLARENCE DE CLEENE SCHOLARSHIP

in honor of his mother Irene Lucille McKloskey De Cleene

Eligibility/Preference for Graduate Students:

- Domestic graduate student
- Conducting research in a field related to sexual diversity
- Students conducting research in the fields of political science or government who enhance the gender diversity in their respective programs
- Students who are currently employed by or have demonstrated an interest in pursuing a career in federal or state government

Eligibility/Preferences for Undergraduate Students:

- Domestic Sophomore, Junior or Senior student
- Students minoring in LGBTQ Studies or Women's Studies
- Students majoring in Political Science, or Government, who enhance the sexual diversity in their respective programs
- Students who are currently employed by or have demonstrated an interest in pursuing a career in federal or state government
- Students needing support for an internship for an office or agency under the three federal branches of the United States Government, except for the Department of Defense, or for a non-profit organization focusing on domestic concerns in the following areas: 1) LGBT rights; 2) LGBT support organizations; 3) LGBT advocacy groups; 4) women's rights; or 5) women's support organizations.

Find more information about how to apply here:

School of Interdisciplinary Studies